

Greetings from

Virginia Beach (Day 1)

We are here! Some drove and some flew but we are mostly all here. We are still missing Anna and due to some weather issues we are missing THE COOK! That is the worst! Inna and Maggie Weedman didn't make it in on time. There was bad weather in Detroit and so the airport was closed and they landed in Akron Ohio instead! What a mess! We will pick them up tomorrow. This year not everyone came on the same flight but they all landed about the same time and were able to share the transportation to the house. Everyone who flew ate at the Chicago airport. However, once they arrived they were hungry again. Teri and Rhonda were gone to Sam's shopping for most of the bulk items and so there was no food in the house when everyone walked through the door. We hurried home and the cooking and putting away began.

This year we didn't get in as late as we did last year. THANK GOODNESS! We were still tired and so once dinner was over and our beds were made, we went back to unpacking our clothes and getting ready to sleep. This year our house came with linens including bath sets! That was nice because we didn't have to pack quite so much.

The weather here today is rainy. It has already started! Let's hope that it clears up quickly and we have great weather to work in.

We are all looking forward to another great Virginia Beach experience! More tomorrow!
